Summer Trips Planned by Local YMCA

The Torrance YMCA this summer will take 105 local youngsters to camps in the San Bernardino and High Sierra mountains. Executive Secretary Stan Roberts announced Friday. He said the branch has received schedules and information folders from the Los Angeles YMCA camp office and is taking applications right now. The program includes one eight-day trip for boys from 8 1/2 to 14 at Camp Round Meadow from July 12 to 19, and one eight-day trip for boys from 12 to 16 to the High Sierras. The unique High Sierra Caravan trip, always popular among Torrance boys, will leave with 25 campers Aug. 6 and return Aug. 13. Itinerary for the 1000-mile journey includes stops at Mammoth Lakes, the Mono Craters, Tuolumne Meadows and Yosemite. The boys will do their own cooking and sleep outside. Roberts said local adult volunteer leaders and YMCA staffers will accompany the boys on trips to supervise and help them enjoy their vacation. "We plan to have one adult for every seven boys to insure maximum safety," the executive said. Further information and folders on the program may be obtained at the Y Branch, 2030 Washington Ave., FA 8-1272.
